

WASHINGTON WINS.

The Exciting Game of Football Yesterday Afternoon.

MARTIN'S FERRY WASN'T ABLE

To Penetrate Through the Strong Washington Line, and as a Consequence Was Beaten—The Ohio Side People Did Not Have Their Strongest Team Out—A Large Crowd Was Present.

The conclusion of the local football season took place yesterday afternoon, when the team of the Washington, P., Athletic Club and the Young Men's Christian Association eleven of Martin's Ferry met in a struggle for supremacy. The game took place on the State Fair grounds, and was witnessed by considerably over one thousand people. The weather was the best that has attended any of the recent football games in this vicinity, though the field itself was a little soggy. The Martin's Ferry boys were short the services of several of their best men, including Gjersten, Montgomery and Greenman, all of whom are "top notchers" in the local galaxy of football.

The first touch-down was made in the first half by Meloy after a hard struggle with the Martin's Ferry backs. Near the line the scrimmage went up exciting and a great cheer went up when Meloy, the Washington left end, was half pushed and half carried across the line and made the touch-down. Sterrett attempted to kick goal but was unsuccessful, so that four points were made on the play.

The only other score in the game was made in the second half after another desperate struggle. Again it was Meloy that carried the leather across the line, and this time Sterrett succeeded in kicking goal, and the score was 10 to 0.

The game was played for the benefit of the Martin's Ferry poor, and a very neat sum was realized. The receipts were $255, and the net amount for the noble charity is $180. Considering the limited time to work an interest in the game the attendance was very good.

The Martin's Ferry boys counted on playing three fine college boys but were disappointed; they were Smith, of La Fayette college; Schofield, of Kenyon college, and Arbaugh, of St. Vincent's; all of them Martin's Ferry boys. With these three the team would have been much stronger, and a better game from a Martin's Ferry standpoint would have resulted. The absence of the several regular players also greatly weakened the team.

ANOTHER GAME.

College Boys Here Want to Play the Game, "Buddy."

There are a number of college students in the city this week on their holiday vacation, and several of them who are interested in college athletics will try to arrange a game of football for next Friday or Saturday afternoon at the State Fair grounds, the team to oppose them being the Y. M. C. A. aggregation of Martin's Ferry, who have made such a brilliant record this season, particularly against Wheeling teams. If the Ohio boys will play the local representatives will try hard to pull out a victory.

The leading spirits in the movement to get up a local team to meet Martin's Ferry are Robert Irwin, brother of Will W. Irwin, and Dr. Andrew J. Wilson, both of whom are members of the undergraduate teams at the University of Pennsylvania. Other players interested are Wagner, of Cornell, Will Kelly, James Handlan, Robert Devine, John Zeigler, Dr. Burdett and others. If the game can be arranged it is proposed that the proceeds go to swell the relief fund for the assistance of the poor in Wheeling. With such a worthy object as a beneficiary, the game would not be attended by thousands of people. The game will, however, be well worth seeing in its merits alone.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

THE GRAND THIS EVENING—"The Boy Ranger." DECEMBER'S as pleasant as May so far this week for certain.

WEDNESDAY evening the Island club will give a whist party at its rooms.

WILLIAM HOWAN, a disorderly, was locked up yesterday, by Chief McNichol.

A MEETING of the council committee on fire department has been called for this evening at 7 o'clock.

W. H. CONLEY, who was killed on the Terminal railroad, was buried yesterday by County Undertaker Schroeder.

THE Central City club gave a dance at Turner hall last night, and Excelsior lodge L. O. F. gave its annual ball in the fine new assembly room in the L. O. O. F. building.

THERE were twelve very assorted cases in the police court yesterday morning. Six prisoners went to the hill. The case of Capps and Welby, for breaking a window in the Hawley block, was continued till to-day.

THE remains of Richard Carter, who was recently killed at Rapid City, S. D., as chronicled in the INTELLIGENCER, will be brought home for interment, the funeral taking place Wednesday at 11 a. m. from the home of his mother at Edgington.

Mrs. WILLIAM YOUNG, the wife of the man who left the city some weeks ago after securing $50 from a neighbor under false pretenses, is lying at her home on the South Side dangerously ill. She has pneumonia, and her life is in danger. She is being cared for by a few friends and neighbors. The whereabouts of Young are not known.

ONE of the Washington football players had bad luck. He missed his train and went to a house of ill-fame. While there a row occurred, and fearing a raid he ran out, barefooted and in his shirt sleeves. Then he couldn't find the house, and Officer Moran found him on Twenty-third street and brought him to headquarters. The police searched for several hours for his clothes, but in vain.

SMOKES WHEELING STOGIES.

A Great Recommendation for the Famous Local Weed.

THE INTELLIGENCER has already mentioned the good taste of stage people, who prefer the Wheeling stogie to any other smoker. Modjeska's company has always several members who place good orders with the manufacturers here, and one small stogie has been dubbed the "Modjeska cigarette." Every new devotee of the Wheeling weed among the actors introduces his friends to the only reliable pure cigar made in this country, and it has come to be quite a fad among the profession to smoke the Wheeling weeds.

ONE of the most confirmed devotees of the stage is Mr. C. W. Conlock, of Miss Elster's company. For several years he has never smoked anything else when he could get that, and he usually managed to get it, for he sent orders for thousands of lots from all over the country, from points so far apart as Portland, Ore., and Boston, Mass.

Yesterday when he got here he had a thousand of his favorite brand waiting, having ordered them by mail from William Gruber some time ago. During the day other members of the company bought large lots also, and Gruber's orders from the members of that company aggregated 3,500.

Mr. Conlock is almost eighty-three years old, and is still with a superior in such parts as Dunstan Kirke and Rector Merrigold. All of which goes to show what the Wheeling stogie will do for a man if he sticks to it long enough.

THE Cruiser struck the Jeffersonville bridge at Louisville and lost two coal boats and had another badly smashed.

THE river at this point was about stationary yesterday afternoon, with 9 feet 9 inches in the channel, but a nice boating stage.

THE boats are all handling a satisfactory business this week. The Keystone State will add largely in freight and passengers at this port this morning.

THE Louis Shirley and Chevalier collided at Ironton, Sunday, and an immense hole was torn in the latter boat's hull, happily not below the water line.

THE tow boats are now passing up for Pittsburgh with empty coal boats, having delivered their cargoes at Cincinnati and Louisville. Two passed up yesterday.

THE towboats in the Mississippi with tows of coal are feeling their way very carefully owing to the scant water, laying up every night; hence they are making slow progress. However, when all the coal on route reaches New Orleans the stock at that point will be considerably increased.

THE following is from the Louisville Times: "It takes a pretty good man in these days of financial and political depression to get the endorsement of one bank, but every one in Louisville is backing Col. Will S. Hays for appointment as steamboat inspector for the Sixth district. A pole thus gilded should be good for the highest permissum in Uncle Sam's orchard."

HEADWATER reports show a rising river at Pittsburgh, but stationary at other reported points.

WARREN—River 5 feet 3 inches and falling; fair and warm.

OHIO CITY—River 6 feet and stationary; cloudy and mild.

GREENSBORO—River 7 feet 6 inches and stationary; fair and warm.

MORGANTOWN—River 6 feet 4 inches and stationary; clear and warm.

PITTSBURGH—River 8 feet and rising; clear and warm.

THE Modern Mother Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

RELIEF OF THE POOR.

The Work Goes on Christmas Forenoon and Many Apply.

ACCEPTABLE ADDITIONS MADE

To the Stores Yesterday, Including a Thousand Pounds of Bacon From the Messrs. Schenck—A Meeting of the Executive Committee To-night. The Good Work Done So Far.

Though yesterday was Christmas the gentlemen of the citizens' relief committee put in two hours of the forenoon on duty at the central storehouse, and from the number of applicants for aid it was well that they were there, for there were twenty-six orders for provisions filed which were certified by the committee members for the wards in which the applicants lived as worthy. Had the assistance not been accessible yesterday these twenty-six families would probably have been hungry on Christmas.

This makes 348 families supplied with necessities of life by the committee, which represents a great deal of amelioration of suffering among the poor.

Yesterday Mr. M. Grogan, chairman of the Sixth ward committee, found two very needy families in his ward. In both there was sickness, and in one the father and mother were both sick in bed. Neither had anybody to send for supplies. Bed clothing and provisions were put up for one and provisions for the other, and Mayor Caldwell got in his buggy and delivered the goods himself.

Fifty-four orders for coal for destitute families were on the register at headquarters yesterday, and but few of them could be filled, as only one or two of the teams were at the disposition of the committee.

A very acceptable and in fact a much needed donation came in yesterday. This was a thousand pounds of bacon, given by E. Schenck & Sons. It made a pretty good wagon load, and the meat was cut up in conveniently small pieces. The committee needs a bacon knife, however, which some generous hardware dealer should donate.

Mrs. H. Sonneborn also donated yesterday a sack of hominy and twenty-four sacks of salt, both of which are very useful articles.

The storehouse will be open all day to-day.

Work on the Streets.

The little piles of mud collected by the city's workmen on Saturday still ornamented the streets last night, but it is understood that the team owners have made a proposal which will result in all the mud being hauled away to-day. While they still decline to accept less than the association's scale of wages, $3 a day, they offer to work five days at that price and then donate two days' services free. That is, they give two out of every seven days to the cause of charity. This will make the cost of hauling cheaper than by the proposed price of 25 cents an hour, and at the same time leaves the wage scale intact.

The board of public works is to put another large force of men to work to-day, and it is the understanding that they will allow the executive committee of the relief work to select the men to be put to work first.

The executive committee is called to meet at the Chamber of Commerce this evening at 7:30. Considerable business of importance is waiting action and there should not be an absent member.

Cleveland's Coming.

A popular balladist and composer who has traveled for several seasons with Cleveland's Minstrels is particularly proud of the fact that he was "born and bred at Huntsville, Alabama, sah," and he finds favor and many friends in the sunny south-land who flock to see him wherever he goes. It was down in Georgia, that he met one of those enthusiastic gentlemen, who certainly ranked as high as Colonel, who in greeting the vocalist, exclaimed, "It does me proud, sah, to gaze again upon your Mobile countenance." "No, sah," responded the warbler and writer of pathetic melodies, "Not Mobile, Huntsville by Gad, sah, Huntsville!" which serves as a reminder that these minstrels will appear at the Opera House Friday afternoon and evening.

3,300 Tin Seals.

The wonderful popularity of Tin Seal Bread is fully demonstrated by the immense number of seals presented at the office of the Wheeling Bakery last Saturday. 3,300 seals were passed into the office, all of which were promptly destroyed. This meant thirty-three dolls and penknives for as many boys and girls, who wished to secure these beautiful gifts in time for Christmas. We take pleasure in giving names and address of our fortunate little friends: Parsel Carroll, St. Mary's, W. Va. Hazel Carroll, St. Mary's, W. Va.
